

The Canadian Armed Forces Health System

BGen Andrew Downes

Surgeon General

Commander Canadian Forces Health Services Group

27 November 2018

Canadian Forces
Health Services Group

Groupe des Services de santé des Forces Canadiennes

Canadian Armed Forces

- “Unification” in 1968
 - Single legal entity: Canadian Armed Forces
- Evolution since unification
- Canadian Forces Health Services Group
 - OP PHOENIX
 - Rx2000
 - Vertical integration of Health Services
 - Other key aspects
 - Modernization 2020

CF Health Services Group Overview

Medical Operational Readiness

- Specialists imbedded in civilian trauma centres
- High readiness detachments
- Maintenance of Clinical Readiness Program
- “moonlighting”
- Just in time training
 - Trauma Training Centres (imbedded in civilian hospitals)
 - Courses
- Future considerations...

Military Health System Transition: International Perspectives

Questions / Discussion

