

Is Now the Time for a Joint Medical Senior Enlisted Leadership Academy?

Moderator: Clinton Garrett Sr., M.S., B.Sc.
Master Chief Petty Officer (MCPO), US Navy (Retired)
Navy Medicine Professional Development Center

DISCLAIMER: Presenters (and all immediate family members or partners) have NO financial or non-financial arrangement or affiliation with a commercial interest as defined by the ACCME.

Panel Members

- Chief Master Sergeant (CMSgt) G. Steve Cum, US Air Force; Chief, Medical Enlisted Force (CMEF) and Enlisted Corps Chief
- Master Chief Petty Officer (MCPO) Joseph Matthews III, US Navy; Senior Enlisted Leader, Medical Education and Training Campus
- Command Sergeant Major (CSM) Thomas Oates, US Army; CSM/Senior Enlisted Leader, Brooke Army Medical Center/San Antonio Military Medical Center
- Mitchell J. Seal, EdD, MEd-IT, BSN, AS, RN; Commander, NC, US Navy (Ret); Dean, College of Allied Health Sciences

Essential Leadership Competencies

- Joint Medical Executive Skills
- 7 Competency Areas, 36 Competencies
 - Military Medical Competencies
 - Leadership and Organizational Management
 - Health Law and Policy
 - Health Resources Allocation
 - Ethics in the Health Care Environment
 - Individual and Organizational Behavior
 - Performance Measurement and Improvement

Learning Objectives

- Understand the structure and function of the Medical Education and Training Campus(METC).
- Understand the structure and function of the College of Allied Health Sciences (CAHS).
- Discuss noncommissioned officer/petty officer education opportunities in the Military Health System (MHS).

Discussion

