Bundeswehr Joint Medical Service
-In the Focus of Military Health System Transition-

2018 Association of Military Surgeons of the United States (AMSUS) Annual Meeting
National Harbor MD, 27 November 2018

Major General Dr. Stephan Schoeps, MD
Deputy Surgeon General of the Bundeswehr and Commander Health Facilities
Disclosures

Presenter has no interest to disclose.

AMSUS and ACE/PESG staff have no interest to disclose.

This continuing education activity is managed and accredited by Affinity CE/Professional Education Services Group (ACE/PESG) in cooperation with AMSUS. ACE/PESG, AMSUS, planning committee members and all accrediting organizations do not support or endorse any product or service mentioned in this activity.
Bundeswehr Joint Medical Service
- Way Ahead -

Structure of the Bundeswehr Medical Service

Multinationality

Integration in the Civilian Health Care System

Mission Readiness and Health Care Strategy

Digitization
Bundeswehr Joint Medical Service

Bundeswehr Medical Service Headquarters

In total 18,000:
15,000 mil +
3,000 civ

5 Bundeswehr Hospitals
2 Central Institutes
4 Supervisory Centers
Institute for Preventive Medicine
5,600

Opertional Medical Support Command
Regional Medical Support Command
Bundeswehr Medical Academy

Weissenfels
Diez
Munich

5,100
6,200
500

5,600

Multinational Medical Coordination Center
Koblenz

600
Tasks of the Multinational Medical Coordination Center
European Medical Command
Joint Combined Medical Coordination Center

Provide Medical Support to Major Formations

Expedite Force Generation through Common Planning

Improve Interoperability between Medical Services

Information Platform of the Medical Services

Coordination Element for Coherent Capability Development

Medical Operational Picture Europe
Integration in the Civilian Health Care System
- Combined Approach -

Cooperation Agreements

Military Hospital = Academic Teaching Hospital

Treating Civilian Patients

Interdisciplinary Patient-centered Health Care

Case numbers: Share of military and civilian patients per Bw(Cen)Hosp

CMC

Case numbers: Share of military and civilian patients per Bw(Cen)Hosp

Koblenz | Ulm | Berlin | Hamburg | Westerstede

0 2000 4000 6000 8000 10000 12000 14000 16000 18000 20000

mil civilians
Mission Readiness – Health Care Strategy

Medical Assessment at 3-Year Intervals

Big Data Analysis

- Achieve individual optimum physical and mental performance
- Reduction or specific prevention of identified health risks
- Identify latent or already existing diseases

Theatre Worldwide
Post Deployment Check

Sanитätsdienst
Wir. Dienen. Deutschland.
Objectives of Digitization of the Bundeswehr Health Care System

1. Individual Electronic Health Record
2. Support of Digital Situations
3. Digital Data Base for Research and Development
4. Seamless Availability/Processing of Health Records
5. Electronic Patient File with Front Ends
Bundeswehr Joint Medical Service
-In the Focus of Military Health System Transition-

2018 Association of Military Surgeons of the United States (AMSUS) Annual Meeting
National Harbor MD, 27 November 2018

Major General Dr. Stephan Schoeps, MD
Deputy Surgeon General of the Bundeswehr and Commander Health Facilities