Frequently Asked Questions

Registration

Why do I need to provide my own email address when I register?

Each unique email address is used as part of the login information for the AMSUS Annual Meeting VIRTUAL platform.

After I register, how do I access the AMSUS Annual Meeting VIRTUAL platform?

By mid-November, you will receive an email providing the unique login information needed to participate in the Annual Meeting.

Why isn't AMSUS offering one-day or two-day passes this year?

In the past, AMSUS offered one-day and two-day passes to accommodate those who could only attend in-person for a shorter period of time. This Annual Meeting is a virtual event, with educational sessions that can be watched anytime, anywhere from 7–16 December 2020.

Educational Sessions

How many educational sessions are being offered this year?

In addition to more than 16 hours of live-streamed content, AMSUS anticipates up to 199 breakout sessions offered on-demand.

Will the plenary sessions be recorded for later viewing?

AMSUS expects to have permission from plenary speakers to make their sessions available for viewing after their plenary session. These presentations will be available for viewing on-demand until 16 December 2020.

CE/CME Credits

How many credit hours are being offered?

AMSUS anticipates offering up to 90 credit hours total for educational breakout sessions that meet the accreditation agency's requirements. Sessions have the potential to qualify for CE/CME in up to eight disciplines.

How long do I have to watch the educational sessions and earn CE/CME?

Attendees who have registered prior to the start of the meeting, 7 December 2020, have until 16 December 2020 to earn credit hours.
